FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Josh Kouba Inducted as Society of Plastics Engineers Board Member

NEW BERLIN, Wisconsin, February 22, 2023—

Josh Kouba, Vice President of Operations at Radius Packaging, was inducted as a Board Member with the Society of Plastics Engineers (SPE) Blow Molding Division on January 31st, 2023. Josh was voted in by fellow members of the organization.

As an accomplished engineering leader with over 17 years of experience in the plastics industry, Josh has focused his career on extrusion blow molding and injection molding plastics. His hands-on approach and servant-leadership style drives innovation and creative solutions.

Josh's passion for the SPE lies in the education of the younger generation. He quotes, "The SPE is dedicated to the advancement of knowledge and education for professionals in the plastics industry. Recruiting and training young professionals is crucial to provide a fresh perspective while pushing technology forward. We must continue to educate and inform that plastics have a positive impact on the world."

The SPE mission is to promote, communicate, and disseminate knowledge relating to the Art and Science of Blow Molding technology. The organization's main event, the 38th Annual Blow Molding Conference and Exhibit, will take place on October 23-25th, 2023 in Wheeling, Illinois.
