Radius Packaging Earns Prestigious "Supplier Excellence" Award from Rockline Industries

NEW BERLIN, Wisconsin, October 12, 2023 –

Radius Packaging has been honored with the "Supplier Excellence" Award from Rockline Industries. This award highlights Radius Packaging's unwavering commitment to excellence in collaboration, transparency, quality, innovation, sustainability, service, and support.

Rockline Industries, a global leader in consumer product manufacturing, conducted a rigorous evaluation of its suppliers to determine the recipient of this esteemed honor. Radius emerged as the clear standout due to its consistent quality, dedication to customer satisfaction, and significant contributions to Rockline's continued success.

"We are truly honored to receive the 'Supplier Excellence' Award from Rockline," said Jason Kitowski, Vice President of Sales at Radius. "It's been enjoyable collaborating and strategizing together for future growth with an organization that shares the same values and culture. This achievement is a testament to our team's hard work, innovation, and commitment to delivering exceptional packaging solutions."

For over 15 years, Radius has been a trusted partner of Rockline, providing cutting-edge packaging solutions that have played a pivotal role in enhancing product quality, efficiency, and consumer satisfaction.

Radius remains steadfast and committed to providing unmatched support through a consultative approach with Rockline and other esteemed partners.
