Radius Packaging Named 2023 Wisconsin Manufacturer of the Year Nominee

NEW BERLIN, Wisconsin, January 18, 2024—

Radius Packaging proudly announces its nomination for the prestigious Wisconsin Manufacturer of the Year Award. This esteemed recognition highlights the outstanding achievements of Wisconsin manufacturers in innovation, philanthropy, technological advances, commitment to customer satisfaction, and the creation of quality jobs.

Radius, among the elite group of finalists, has demonstrated excellence across various criteria, including operations, workplace safety, continuous improvement, management philosophy, employee commitment, community support, and financial stability. The company's dedication to these principles has set a benchmark in the industry.

The finalists will undergo evaluation by an independent panel of judges from industry, government, education, the business media, and past award winners. This comprehensive assessment ensures that the winners truly exemplify excellence in all facets of manufacturing.

"We are honored to be recognized among the finalists for the 2023 Wisconsin Manufacturer of the Year Award. This nomination is a testament to our unwavering commitment to excellence in every aspect of our operations," said Nicole Leiberis, Marketing Manager at Radius Packaging.

Winners will be revealed and nominees honored at the Manufacturer of the Year Award Ceremony at The Pfister Hotel in downtown Milwaukee on February 22, 2024. A total of four Grand Award winners will be selected.
